

Instruction Manual on How to Use the TUMS-IC Notification System

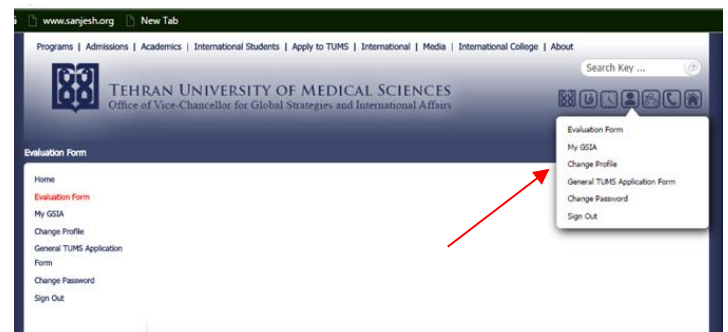

- ❖ First, type the address <http://gsia.tums.ac.ir> in your browser's address bar (preferably Google Chrome)
- ❖ You can enter your personal dashboard from the login page using your username and password (As shown in Picture 1)
- ❖ After entering your control panel, you can see and receive correspondence and change your password or profile information via the menus My GSIA, Change Password, Change Profile (as shown in Picture 2).

Important Points:

1. It is to be mentioned that TUMS-IC students' usernames and passwords have been distributed while observing strict confidentiality. These users can enter their personal dashboard using this information and do not need to register.
2. All relevant communication will be conducted via the TUMS-IC information system at <http://gsia.tums.ac.ir>. All students are kindly required to visit this website in order to be updated regarding general and/or specific news and announcement. Consequences as a result of failure to visit and be updated regarding general and/or specific news and announcement will be the responsibility of the student.
3. In case of any problems regarding access to your dashboard, please contact us by calling 88912091, extensions 112 and 126.
