

Toruń, 2018-09-21

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that Dr. Kamran Akbarzadeh took a part in leading the "Forensically important Diptera: identification workshop. Toruń 17 - 21 September 2018" organized collaboratively by the Faculty of Biology and Environmental Protection of the Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Poland and the European Association for Forensic Entomology.

During the course he took part in leading following topics:

- species identification of adult forms and larvae of European and Mediterranean Calliphoridae of forensic importance,
- species identification of adult forms and larvae of European Sarcophagidae of forensic importance.

Additionally during workshop he presented lecture entitled "Maggot Therapy, Old Idea, New Approaches"

Prof. dr hab. Krzysztof Szpila

Coordinator of the Workshop