Dear Prof. Mehdi Nili Ahmadabadi,

Congratulations! The abstract on which you are First Author, # 2584861, Serum Hypercoagulability States in Coats Disease, has been accepted for presentation during ARVO-Asia 2017, February 5-8, in Brisbane, Australia.

You will receive an Abstract Scheduling Notification on Wednesday, November 30, to advise you of your abstract's presentation format (paper or poster) and its scheduled session, presentation day and time.

- Accepted abstracts will be scheduled for presentation on any one day of ARVO-Asia, i.e. Sunday, February 5 through Wednesday, February 8.

- Presentation guidelines will be posted in November for your reference: <http://www.arvo.org/ARVO-Asia/Abstracts/>

Changes to scheduled presentation dates and times cannot be accommodated, so mark your calendar now and plan your schedule and travel accordingly. If necessary, you can adjust your schedule and travel plans based on your assigned presentation day/time after you have received your Abstract Scheduling Notification on November 30.

ARVO-Asia's program overview is currently available on the Program web page for your reference: <http://www.arvo.org/ARVO-Asia/Program/>
