REVISED Final Schedule & List of Poster Presenters

ADM CONFERENCE, Oct 8-11, 2014

Bologna, Italy

Dear Behroozi Bakhsh, Marjan,

Yes, your Abstract has been accepted for a Poster presentation!

However, the FINAL Schedule & List of Poster Presenters has been REVISED. There has been a record number of abstracts selected this year for the ADM 2014 Conference in Bologna, Italy so we are looking forward to a very full schedule. In response to the many requested changes and some corrections, a NEW list and schedule has been released and can be downloaded at: https://academydentalmaterials.org/3/meeting_brochure.html

Please visit the link, download and review the REVISED FINAL SCHEDULE AND LIST OF POSTER PRESENTERS and note your poster number. This list is also the group of abstracts to be published in Dental Materials.

There will be four poster sessions, two on Thursday, 9th of October and two on Friday, 10th of October. All sessions will start at 11 am. You need to be by your poster during your scheduled poster session.

Posters should be displayed from 9am until 3pm at their presentation day. The poster board size is 70 cm wide and 100 cm high, so the posters will need to be VERTICAL. The push pins will be provided. Due to space constraints, we cannot provide tables or electricity for poster presentations.

Question regarding abstract presentations should be directed to Nick Silikas at abstract@academydentalmaterials.org
