Microscopy Conference 2017

Dreiländertagung SSOM • ASEM • DGE

21 - 25 August 2017 | Lausanne

Abstract accepted for poster presentation

Dear PhD Hajjaran,

On behalf of the Scientific Program Committee we are happy to inform you - as presenting author - that your abstract with the submission ID 516 and title "Identification of Cytoskeleton and cellular traffic and membrane dynamics of Iranian Leishmania infantum by LC- Mass spectrometry" has been accepted for a poster presentation at the Microscopy Conference 2017 in Lausanne.

Your new program ID will be announced along with the main program that will be published within the next weeks at our conference website www.mc2017.de.

ATTENTION:

If a poster presentation is no option for presenting your contribution, please inform us at the latest until June 16, 2017 via e-mail to mc@conventus.de. If you do not get in touch with us until this date we will interpret this as a confirmation.

Please find the preliminary program structure here or have a look at the MC Program Planner, where you can navigate through the scientific program, view sessions by day and category and create your own itinerary to fully exploit your conference experience.

Presentation

The session of your poster is "LS 5 - Cytoskeleton, cellular traffic and membrane dynamics". The presenting author (or a designated representative colleague) ought to be present on this day/time. Your poster must be in English.

Requirements

The size of your poster has to be in accordance to DIN format A0 (84,1 cm width x 118,9 cm height) and should not be laminated. Mounting materials will be provided on-site.

All poster boards will be labeled with a poster number. (You will find your poster number in the program book.)

Assembly and Disassembly

Please mount your poster on Tuesday, 22 August 2017 until 1:30 p.m. The dismantling of the poster has to be finished on Thursday, 24 August 2017 until 6:00 p.m. Posters that have not been removed by that time will be considered as waste.

Publication of Abstracts

Your abstract will be published within a quotable media. You can identify your abstract using the new ID.
