26th Annual Meeting of the Society for Virology
06–09 April 2016 | Münster, Germany

Acceptance as poster presentation

Dear abstract author,

Thank you very much for your patience.

On behalf of the Scientific Advisory Board we are happy to inform you - as presenting author - that your abstract with the former submission ID 75 and title "Engineering a modified HsPUM1-HD in order to bind to internal ribosome entry site (IRES) of hepatitis C virus (HCV)" (submitted as Oral) has been accepted as poster presentation for the Annual Meeting of the GfV from 06–09 April 2016 in Münster, Germany.

Your new programme-ID P189 will be used in the main programme and abstract publication.

Detailed information regarding your poster presentation you will receive within the next weeks.

Please find the preliminary programme structure here. The detailed programme overview will be published within the next weeks at the conference website www.virology-meeting.de.

Registration and accomodation

Please keep in mind that you are not being registered automatically, although the registration of the presenting author is obligatory.

Registration forms as well as the possibility for online registration can be found on the conference website www.virology-meeting.de.

In addition, please book your hotel accommodation as soon as possible. We would like to suggest you some hotels in Münster. Please click here.

If you have further questions, please contact Ms. Josephine Kessler from our organising agency Conventus via phone +49 3641 31 16-353 or by e-mail josephine.kessler@conventus.de.

We are looking forward to welcoming you in Münster!

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Stephan Ludwig
