Subject: ARVO Abstract # 3144640 Review Notification

Wednesday, 09-Jan-2019

Dear Dr. Masoud Fard,

Congratulations! The abstract on which you are First Author, # 3144640, Macular optical coherence tomography angiography in ischemic optic neuropathy compared to that in glaucoma, has been accepted for presentation during the 2019 ARVO Annual Meeting, April 28 - May 2, 2019 in Vancouver, Canada.

You will receive an Abstract Scheduling Notification on Wednesday, February 13, to advise you of your abstract's presentation format (paper or poster) and it's scheduled session, presentation day and time. Presentation guidelines will also be available online in mid February for your reference.

Accepted abstracts will be scheduled for presentation on any one day of the 2019 ARVO Annual Meeting, i.e. Sunday, April 28, through Thursday, May 2. Changes to scheduled presentation dates and times cannot be accommodated, so mark your calendar now and plan your schedule and travel accordingly. If necessary, you can adjust your schedule and travel plans based on your assigned presentation day/time after you have received your Abstract Scheduling Notification on February 13.

The Annual Meeting's schedule-at-a-glance is available on the Program web page for your reference: <https://www.arvo.org/annual-meeting/>
