

Dear Assistant Prof Mahboobeh Khabaz Mafinejad,

Asia Pacific Medical Education Conference (APMEC) 8 - 12 January 2020, Singapore

Thank you for submitting an abstract for the conference. We are pleased to inform you that your abstract "EFFECTS OF INTRODUCING "CODE OF CONDUCT FOR CADAVERS" ON MEDICAL STUDENTS' ATTITUDES" has been shortlisted for the following presentation category:

Short Communications

Kindly indicate your acceptance of our offer to present in the above mentioned category at the following page (click here) no later than 2 October 2019.

Registration and Payment

If you have not registered, please logon to our website (click here) to register as well as make payment by 7 October 2019 to confirm your presentation slot.

Only officially registered presenters (confirmed only upon receipt of registration form and full payment) for the APMEC 2020 may present their work during the Free or Short Communications presentation sessions.

Presentation Material

Presenters will need to send us their presentation material prior to the conference in early October. The guidelines can be found on our website. Information on uploading the material will be sent at a later date.

Other Information

Do note that we will issue a letter of invitation (if required) only after we have received full payment of registration fee and a scanned copy of your passport.

Kindly apply for a visa early if you require one. More information is available at our website. Alternatively, you may visit http://www.mfa.gov.sg/content/mfa/consular_information/foreigners_visiting_singapore.html.
