

In this trip, in addition to delivering a speech on the experiences of nursing empowerment, a related discussion was held with the representatives of countries such as USA, UK, Turkey, Kosovo, and Netherland, and I talked about the experiences of Iran in establishing Deputy for Nursing in the Ministry of Health, establishing an independent Iranian Nursing Organization, development of nursing education, and scientific & professional organizations/accusations.