Dear Dr. Mahvash Salsali

On behalf of the organizing committee for the International Conference on Interdisciplinary Social Sciences you are invited to attend and present your proposal, I14P0849 The communication skills Exploring nurses' communication skills with patients: A qualitative content analysis: Nurses' communication skills in relation with patient at the:

Ninth International Conference on Interdisciplinary Social Sciences
University of British Columbia
Vancouver, Canada
11-13 June 2014

The International Conference on Interdisciplinary Social Sciences examines the nature of disciplinary practices, and the interdisciplinary practices that arise in the context of 'real world' applications. It also interrogates what constitutes 'science' in a social context, and the connections between the social and other sciences. The focus of papers ranges from the finely grained and empirical (research practices and results exemplifying one or more disciplines), to wide-ranging multi-disciplinary and trans-disciplinary practices, to perspectives on knowledge and method. This event will bring together some of the world's leading thinkers and practitioners in this field. We feel that your involvement in the presentations and general discussions will add great value to this conference.

You may find regularly updated information about the conference on our website: <http://thesocialsciences.com/>. Should you require further information or have any questions, please feel free to contact the conference secretariat at support@thesocialsciences.com.

We do hope you will be able to attend this important and timely international conference.

Yours Sincerely,

Dr. Bill Cope
Director
