This official notification will be followed up with an invitation to the AAO-HNSF Poster Harvester (conference management portal) that will expand on the information provided below.

Printing Your Poster

You have the option to 1) print, carry, and hang your poster on your own, 2) use the UPS Store located onsite at the Philadelphia Convention; or 3) utilize Genigraphics, our poster production partner to print, hang, and/or remove it for a fee.

Online Poster Gallery

In addition to displaying your poster, you are required to upload an electronic version so it can be made accessible to all attendees (in-person and virtual). You will also have the option to create a five-minute audio file introducing your poster.
