Date: 12-11-2022

Dear Dr. Ardalan Shariat
Department of Digital Health, School of Medicine,
Tehran University of Medical Sciences, Tehran, Iran

I am Dr. Ghizal Fatima, Secretary General, International College of Nutrition and Professor in Department of Biotechnology at Era University, Lucknow, India. It gives me immense pleasure to cordially invite you as a speaker and chair in one of our sessions in the upcoming 25th World Congress on Clinical Nutrition (WCCN) to be held at Era University, Lucknow, India on 26th and 27th November 2022. The conference deliberations would be on the theme “Physiological health dynamics, functional food industry, nutraceuticals and health promotions for disease prevention” It is a two-day gathering providing a perfect platform for the interaction among clinical nutritionists, physicians, scientists, experts and research fellows from all around the world reputed institutions and medical schools to accelerate scientific discoveries in Clinical Nutrition and Health Dynamics.

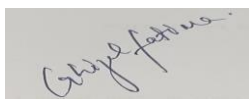

We are delighted to inform you that your abstract entitled “Efficiency of Telepath, combination of physical & physiological approaches, for the patients post stroke: A narrative review” is accepted for the oral presentation.

We believe that your endowment in this conference will be very beneficial and many of our conference attendees will benefit from your guidance.

We look forward for your presence.

Sincerely,

Best regards,

Dr. Ghizal Fatima
