

21st Asian and Oceanian Myology Center Meeting

October 26-28, 2023

Shanghai · China

Dear Prof. Shahriar Nafissi,

With great pleasure, on behalf of the 21st AOMC organizing committee, we would like to invite you as our guest speaker to the 21st AOMC meeting on 26th -28th Oct 2023 in Shanghai.

This meeting is organized by the Asian Oceanian Myology Center (AOMC), co-organized by the Shanghai Medical Association and the Hong Kong Society of Neuromuscular Diseases; and hosted by the Shanghai Medical Association and co-hosted by the Shanghai Stroke Association.

This face-to-face meeting will feature several thematic forums including muscular dystrophy, spinal muscular atrophy, congenital neuromuscular disorders (NMDs), oculopharyngeal distal myopathy, immune-mediated NMDs, peripheral neuropathy, and diagnosis of unsolved NMDs, latest translational research, challenge in NMD care and more.

It would be our great honor to have you as our invited speaker and give a talk on lipid storage myopathies. We believe that with your vast and in-depth knowledge in this field, your shared experience will be extremely valuable to all AOMC participants.

As a token of thanks, your transportation arrangement between the hotel and the airport, the hotel accommodation, and the airfare for economy class will be covered. We sincerely hope you will accept the invitation.

With you accepting the invitation, please provide us with the following before the end of August 2023.

1. A brief biography (less than 300 words) with your photo.
2. The abstract of your talk(s) (less than 500 words)

To keep with the routine, registration fees are not waived for AOMC executive board member. Please register at your earliest convenience to facilitate seamless arrangements. If you have questions regarding visa requirements and the procedure for applying for a Chinese visa, please contact xuxc@fumed.com.cn and jiaokexin@fudan.edu.cn

Once again, we thank you for your support and look forward to welcoming you in Shanghai this October 2023.
